

Avian Science Club Agenda

Tuesday, January 23, 2011

1. Introduction of new officers:

- President: Laurie Morman
- Vice President: Jonathan Guyas
- Treasurer: Beth Kowalski
- Ag Council Representative: Quentin Ford

2. The Annual ISPA Banquet:

- Wednesday, February 9, 2011
- Location: Indiana Roof Ballroom in Indianapolis
- Reception begins at 5:00, dinner at 6:15pm
- Leave campus between 1-4pm depending on classes
- It is formal attire (suits for guys, equivalent for girls)

This event is an interactive format where students can mingle with eggs and poultry producers, allied industry members, government and university officials, and Indiana state legislators. We ask that the students help before and/or after the banquet for setting up and tearing down.

3. The Purdue Ag Fish Fry:

- Saturday, February 5, 2011
- Location: Indianapolis at the State Fairgrounds
- Need at least 150 volunteers to help serve food
- Transportation or parking passes are offered for event

The guest speaker this year is former U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Dan Glickman. One important aspect of student volunteering is the opportunity to network. Several student volunteers from the past few years have reported that they got an internship and even permanent job offers from someone they met at the Fish Fry.

4. Ag Days

- Bring Baby chicks to Delphi (March 17th) and Kokomo

5. Midwest Poultry Consortium

- Who has applied and was accepted?
- Available scholarship from the club

6. Chicken Roasters Sale

- 99 cents per pound at the Butcher Block

7. SpringFest

- April 9th and 10th (10am-4pm)
