Welcome back on campus!

We hope that you had an enjoyable and relaxing summer at home or here on campus.

We also wish you all the best for your classes this semester. Make sure to say hello to our new graduate students!

Our new department head

John Wensveen, Ph.D., has been appointed professor and head of the Department of Aviation Technology at Purdue University. He began his new duties July 1, 2014.

Wensveen comes to Purdue from Mango Aviation Partners, where he is executive vice president for airline start-ups. His 25-year career has included positions in higher education, aviation consulting, airlines, and project management.

AGC & Flight Safety Foundation Callout

Please join us for our AGC callout, which will take place on Wednesday, September 3rd NISW 184 from 5:00 pm to 5:30 pm. The event is a great opportunity to meet some of our new graduate students and to hear some more about AGC and the activities we have planned for this semester.

There will be free food and drinks

Additionally, the Flight Safety Foundation Callout will take place right after our callout at 5:30 pm, same location. You should stick around and see what the FSF student chapter has to offer!

For those of you that do not know, Flight Safety Foundation is an international non-profit organization whose sole purpose is to provide impartial, independent, expert safety guidance and resources for the aviation and aerospace industry.
