Are you a graduate student who is interested in engaging in research pursuits that enhance campus and community life as well as your own career? Do you enjoy working in a collaborative atmosphere that utilizes an interdisciplinary approach to ask and answer scientific questions? Then consider applying for the Discovery Engagement And Learning (DEAL) Grant.

Applications for the DEAL Grant are now being solicited from graduate students who have an interest in the following areas:

- Agriculture, Pharmacy & Science
- Education, Liberal Arts & Social Science
- Engineering & Technology

Master’s and Doctoral students who are in good academic standing are eligible to apply. Students must form teams of 3-4 individuals from two or more academic departments and must have a faculty advisor. Awards will be made up to $2500 per research team and are for one year.

Deadline for submissions is March 1, 2013 and awards will start in Fall of 2013.

If interested, please send inquiries to Gregory Weber (deal.grants@gmail.com) or visit the PGSG website (http://web.ics.purdue.edu/~pgsg/projects/deal/)