1	i dropped this course because it took to much time to complete the required assignments and i did not get the grades that i was hoping for.
2	Although the class was really demanding, my English writing skill has improved.
3	Liz was a great instructor and one who really changed my perception of the course. As a junior, I went into the course somewhat dreading the content to ensue but she completely changed that. She has effectively taught the meaning of composition at this point in time because our society encompasses more than just written media now. She was personable, friendly, always helpful, and kept a freshman-level class interesting to students at all levels. This class was a great experience and one that I didn't at all expect to come from such a class. Liz did a fantastic job!
4	My instructor, Elizabeth Homan, was very knowledgeable. She was very helpful and understanding throughout the entire semester. She did a wonderful job.
5	She always helps people and cares about them, I do not believe that I would have learned this much with another person teaching the class.
6	Liz Homan was an excellent teacher and fun to work with!
7	She was an excellant teacher. I would have never gussed that it was her first time teaching a college level class.
8	It seemed that the teachers patience would run out quickly concerning me. It never felt like she valued my opinions as much as others. Many times I was frustrated with this class because of the teacher.
