Fairway Cooperative Alcohol Policy

It is God’s desire that His body be unified. Fairway’s alcohol policy exists to preserve and protect unity among its members. The alcohol policy is not meant to be legalistic or to imply that drinking in and of itself is a sin.

No resident of Fairway Cooperative shall break the laws of the state of Indiana pertaining to alcohol. There shall be no alcoholic beverages on the property of Fairway. There shall be no alcohol consumption at any house function. All residents of Fairway Cooperative that are of legal drinking age should abstain from alcohol while at Fairway or in the Greater Lafayette Area. This does no include what you do at home or when you are staying outside the previously mentioned Lafayette Area. Anyone violating these policies will, on the first offense receive 5 blackmarks, be required to give formal verbal apology at the house meeting following the offense, and will be required to appear before the Executive Board. Anyone repeating the violation will be required to appear before the Executive Board and house advisors, and will be subject to dismissal from Fairway Cooperative pending the discretion of the advisors.

I agree that I can and will abide by Fairway Cooperative’s Constitution and Alcohol Policy if selected into the house.

Signed _____ Date _____

I have answered these questions to the best of my ability. I am willing and able to do my share of the work, and will cooperate with other, obey house rules, and uphold all the Christian morals, beliefs, and attitudes described in scripture.
