historian's note

Deanna Ho, PC '03, Chapter Historian

After calculating my 48-plus hours spent on compiling a semester's worth of activities--that is 16 weeks of academia, socials, and events--I have finally arrived to my "historian's note page." This being the last page of the project, I could simply just list details about myself and end the process. However, since I put some time and effort into this project, I will put some effort into my note as well. This position has not just taught me the simple tasks of holding a camera steady and taking photos, or learning how to type captions. It has taught me that, although, this is a one person position, it requires the help of many. From utilizing sources such as alumnaes, to interest groups, to chapter members, they all play a vital role in this process. I want to thank all the ladies of Pi Beta Phi, both old and present, for all of their help. As you read on, I hope you are able to enjoy the many successes of this semester--as it is now a part of the rich history of the Indiana Delta Chapter of Pi Beta Phi.

Cheers!

Of course it was much easier to think with a nice new nail polish.

HOUSE STAFF

SPRING 2004

With over 80 girls living at 1012 State Street, life at Pi Beta Phi would not have been complete without the help of some very important people. Our house staff. Carol Gott and Louise Linder arrive early in the morning and depart in the afternoon, leaving the Pi Phi house spotlessly clean. Lisa Hall, our daytime cook, is always on hand to serve us the most nutritious lunches. At night, Ed Whiteley, is always willing to grill-out for the ladies. Pi Phis enjoy the company of all house staff members as they are an intricate part of our lives here at Pi Beta Phi.

RECRUITMENT

JANUARY 8-10

The 2004 Sorority recruitment process saw some changes, but nevertheless, Pi Phis still had another successful year. This year's recruitment process was split into a fall weekend for open houses, and continued with casuals, cokes, and suits day in early January. Recruitment Chair, Amanda Jordan, certainly handled the changes with great poise. She made sure songs were perfected, decorations were flawless, and the skit was well-rehearsed. Once again, with great leadership from all around the house, Pi Phis were able to attract a new and amazing pledge class, yet another group of magnificent women to carry on the Pi Phi name.

CASUALS INVITATIONAL- JANUARY 8TH

Since potential new members had already completed the "open house" round, the casuals invitational occurred first when girls arrived back from the Winterbreak. The following day was the "Coke's invitational."

COKES INVITATIONAL- JANUARY 9TH

On the third day of recruitment, potential new members were welcomed to PiBeta Phi by some quite peculiar characters dressed in jump-suits, bandanas, and boas. Of course this was all part of the "cokes invitational" day. This year, Pi Phis rehearsed the skit to perfection and performed it at all six parties. Skits entertained the new members and offered them a glimpse into our chapter's spirit and personality.

Casting call? These girls are ready to perform.

JANUARY 8-10

SUITS INVITATIONAL- JANUARY 10TH

Members of the 2003 pledge class take a break in "Pi Phi Heaven."

As tradition would have it here at the Indiana Delta chapter, the 2002 pledge class decorated "Pi Phi Heaven," while the 2003 pledge class took on the daunting task of hanging over 30,000 stars made of foil. "Pi Phi Heaven" occurs on the last and final day of recruitment. Potential new members get the chance to listen to seniors of Pi Beta Phi reflect on the positive influence and impact that membership in Pi Beta Phi has given them.

B I D N I G H T

JANUARY 12

Oh the excitement of meeting fresh, new faces! Bid Night is the first night the new members get to spend with Pi Phis. We welcomed the new girls into Pi Beta Phi with a formal dinner and a night of bowling. Unlike years past, the junior pledge class took on the role as “Beta Buddy” this year. Beta Buddies assist and guide the new members during the first few weeks of pledgeship.

Beta Buds! Kelly Presmyk, Sara Tebbe, Megan Wallace, & Ashley Hodges greet each other with warm smiles.

Pile up! These new members take a break for a picture.

Members of the junior pledge class were on hand to enjoy the “bowling frenzy” as well.

PLEDGESHIP

JANUARY 13 - MARCH 6

Pledgeship is one of the most memorable and exciting aspects of Greek life experience. It is a time of fun, friendship, learning and growing. It is a period of orientations and responsibilities. The pledges of the 2004 pledge class were taught in a eight-week period by our Vice President Social, Molly Gallagher. Pi Beta Phi's history as well as principles were taught to the new members to help them have a better understanding of our chapter.

"I really enjoyed working with this year's pledge class. I loved getting the chance to know them better."

~Molly Gallagher, PC '02 New Member Educator

left photo: The new pledge class came over to the house to familiarize themselves with faces of members living in the house, and with new faces in their pledge class as well.

"Molly is one of a kind. She was very helpful to all of us, and was there for us when we needed her."

~Liz Alleman, PC '04

"Molly really put a lot of time and effort into each and everyone of us. She was simply amazing."

~Kristin Eberhard, PC '04

PLEDGESHIP

JANUARY 13 - MARCH 6

Big Sis Night is a very special night for both the new pledges and the sophomore pledge class members. After a month of pledgship, the new girls get the opportunity to select a sophomore member as their "Big Sis." The Big Sis program serves to provide the new members with a guiding and promising friendship that will last forever between the two.

Annie McCarty(left) receives a bag full of gifts from her big sis, Jackie Pike.

"Big Sis Night was a lot of fun. It was exciting to find out who your big sis was going to be and who you were going to live with next semester. After Big Sis Night, I was excited to go to the house more because I had someone to visit. Big Sis Night made me feel like a real part of the house." ~Annie McCarty (pictured above), PC '04

New Member Serenades

february 17

Part of the fun and excitement of pledgship involved the opportunities for the new members to participate in serenades with the chapter. This year's pledge class created a serenade in which they performed to announce our formal dance, Beaux and Arrows. The performance was a wonderful show put on by the chapter as it showcased the talented new pledge class.

INITIATION

MARCH 6, 2004

On the early morning of March 6, twenty-eight young women were initiated into the Indiana Delta chapter of Pi Beta Phi. After eight weeks of pledgship, the women were recognized for their hard work and dedication with an eventful and exciting day.

Top: (l-r) Kelly Presmyk, Ashley Hodges, and Jackie Williams waiting in the informal lounge for the conclusion of initiation.

"Initiation was an amazing experience for me. Joining the same sorority as my mom made the day so much better. Having my mom at initiation was another connection/bonding experience that my mom and I can now share."

~Leah Downing, PC '04 with alumna Donna Downing, Class of 1978.

INITIATION

MARCH 6, 2004

After an early morning filled with ceremonies and rituals, the girls gathered together to enjoy a wonderful brunch.

The cold and windy conditions did not deter the new members from enjoying their “spotlight” day. The new members posed for pictures on the front lawn, and most importantly took on the traditional task of stopping traffic on State Street for a picture.

“My favorite part of initiation was stopping traffic on State Street. It is a great and fun tradition that makes initiation extra special for Pi Phis.”

Initiated legacies: Brooke Briede, Lara Dabis, Leah Dowling, Allison Krisel, & Laura Krumwiede.

SENIOR FAREWELL

APRIL 26-29

Welcoming in the girls. Like most years, this year's senior pledge class rallied together to welcome in the new pledge class with a grand entrance and a rhythmic beat.

Membership chairman, Megan Wallace, organized the "Senior Week" festivities. We kicked off the week with senior fortunes, answering machines, and roundtables on Monday. Tuesday saw crazy hats and old t-shirts given away at senior wills. Finally, on Thursday we had a cookout followed by a performance from the new pledgeclass.

"It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday..." As the spring semester came to an end, many senior Pi Phis were just starting new chapters in their lives. Some will be heading out into the workforce, while others continue their education in graduate school. Either way, the doors at "1012 State" will always remain open to welcome them in.

Yum, yum. These seniors are enjoying some of the tasty food from the senior cookout.

Let us sing. The new pledge class created a song to pay tribute to the outgoing senior pledge class. The song selection was "Mambo #5." The song's lyrics incorporated all of the names of the seniors.

A LOOK BACK...

ALUMNAE ACTIVITIES

SPRING 2004

Alumnae, Alice Arthur, and Jamie Werling spend time decorating cookies for the Greentree Nursing Home.

Alumnaes of Pi Beta Phi here in West Lafayette, Indiana play an intricate role in the success of our chapter. Many local Pi Phis donate their time by being actively involved with our chapter's community service projects. Not only that, many alumnaes often take time out of their schedules to visit and talk to active Pi Phis during dinner. This year's Alumnae Advisor Committee and House Board Corporation came to several dinners in which they were able to meet and converse with each pledge class. Their time and effort is greatly appreciated by our active members.

FRATERNITY HERITAGE

SPRING 2004

“Mafia Night” is night when members of Pi Phi dress in black and get to celebrate their “Pi Phi Family” by having dinner together. Members of the family are representative of a close knit Italian mob family. Families sit together at assigned tables, and are able to spend some quality time together.

On March 2nd, Pi Phis got to celebrate its Mafia Night tradition with Purdue Greek Advisor and Assistant to the Office of the Dean of Students, Andy Robison, as well as Graduate Assistant, Andy Byerly. Mr. Robison presented our Chapter President, Andrea Lyons, a former Board of Director of the Panhellenic Association, with a gift for all her hard work for the Purdue Greek community.

SISTERHOOD RETREAT

APRIL 14

(top) Hello to the girls abroad! We could not forget the members who spent their semester studying abroad, so the house members decided to send a friendly greeting via photo. The sign above reads "A world apart, but close at heart."

Sisterhood retreat is an all house activity where sisters are able to enjoy a fun activity organized by our Vice President Moral, Ashley Orchard. This year our retreat involved the competitive side of sports. The members gathered together with unifying pledge class t-shirts to partake in a friendly game of flag football at the Purdue intramural fields. The sophomore pledge class--colored green--came out victorious.

What's in a t-shirt? This year we were given t-shirts that symbolized our pledge classes' year. Pledge class 2002 received blue, pledge class 2003 received green, while the new pledge class received purple t-shirts. The back of the t-shirts came with the catchy saying "Friendship is like peeing in your pants. Everyone can see it, but only you can feel its true warmth."

FRATERNITY HERITAGE

MOM'S WEEKEND

APRIL 16, 17

Mom's Weekend was celebrated differently than in years past. Lauryn Runge, Public Relations chair, who is in charge of the event, scheduled manicures and pedicures for the mother/daughter day. Many Pi Phis and their moms enjoyed the luxurious day at Christina's Nail and Spa Salon. After the relaxing experience, the mothers and daughters gathered at the Pi Beta Phi house for a nice brunch. Pi Beta Phi's Founders' Day presentation was also given.

FIJI FOREPLAY

FEBRUARY

BENEFITTING THE HENRY POOR FOUNDATION

Phi Gamma Delta's annual philanthropy, FIJI Foreplay, was yet another time for Pi Phis to show off their athletic skills. The philanthropy consisted of a miniature golf tournament and a lip sync contest. The first night, Pi Phis got their clubs together, and sported their jerseys to play a round of golf in the Fiji chapter house. On day two, the Pi Phi dance team performed three dances. The girls put on a great effort throughout the two days of competition.

GREEN TREE NURSING HOME

FEBRUARY 12

BENEFITTING THE ELDERS OF THE WEST LAFAYETTE COMMUNITY

Pi Phis spent an evening with the elders at the Greentree Nursing Home in early February. Pi Phis have visited the local nursing home for many semesters now. Each semester we select a special holiday to pay a visit. This semester we chose the Valentine's Day season. Cookies were decorated with pink icing and red sprinkles. The girls who visited had a lovely time chatting with the elder residents.

(l-r) Leah Downing, Liz Alleman, and Kelly Konzen spread icing on the cookies that would later be delivered to the nursing home.

ZETA TAU ALPHA'S BIG MAN ON CAMPUS

MARCH 5

BENEFITTING THE SUSAN G. KOMEN BREAST CANCER FOUNDATION

These Pi Phis spent an evening in Elliott Hall of Music to support Jace Carter.

Zeta Tau Alpha sorority holds their annual philanthropy Big Man On Campus, with all profit going to the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, during the spring semester. Each year, Pi Phis are proud to help sponsor a candidate in the event. This year we sponsored Beta Theta Pi's Jace Carter. Jace did not place in the contest, but Beta Theta Pi and Pi Beta Phi were able to raise a generous amount for the cause.

ALPHA KAPPA LAMBDA SOCCER TOURNAMENT MARCH 28

BENEFITTING CYSTIC FIBROSIS RESEARCH

This year, Pi Phis came out kicking. We were able to muster a 2-0 win against Gamma Phi Beta, which launched us into the 2nd round. However, we faced a difficult challenge in the eventual champions, Alpha Chi Omega. The game against Alpha Chi Omega was intense, as we forced them into a sudden death shoot-out.

ALPHA XI DELTA & PANHELLENIC EASTER EGG HUNT APRIL 4

BENEFITTING THE CHOOSE CHILDREN PROGRAM

Children on Slayter Hill searching for eggs.

With the Easter holiday rolling around, Pi Phis donated their time by participating in Alpha Xi Delta's and the Panhellenic Association's annual Easter Egg Hunt. Pi Phis set up a booth with fun activities for the children. The children were from the greater Lafayette area and were excited to search for eggs filled with yummy surprises on Slayter Hill.

PI BETA PHI BLOOD DRIVE

APRIL 6

BENEFITTING THE INDIANA BLOOD CENTER

The third annual year of Pi Beta Phi's blood drive was another success. With our house's prime location on the corner of State and Russell street, we were able to gain many students and local citizens to stop by and donate blood. The Indiana Blood Center employees came in earlier to prepare for the long day, as a total of 120 came in, while 92 recipients were accepted to give blood.

Part of the process before donating blood is a mandatory survey of the donor's history. With Pi Phi's immaculate formal living room, we were able to accommodate a "questioning booth" for the Indiana Blood Center workers.

SPRING 2004

With all the activities going on at Pi Beta Phi, some Pi Phis still find time to participate in various clubs and organizations around campus. Being a part of any organization requires time commitment, and these Pi Phis certainly deserve recognition for their involvement outside of Pi Beta Phi.

RISK MANAGER SPEAKERS

OFFICER KEENE RED ELK

MARCH 8

(top) Officer Keene Red Elk of the Purdue Police department

Early March brought a special visitor to Pi Beta Phi. After dinner, Officer Keene Red Elk of the Purdue Police Department spent an evening speaking to members of Pi Beta Phi about safety issues from alcohol drinking to walking late at night through campus. Kristen Bassett, our Risk Manager, scheduled the positive and learning experience for the members of Pi Beta Phi.

PHI BETA SIGMA FRATERNITY STEP SHOW

MARCH 30

An evening education and entertainment. This semester Abbi Garringer, our Vice President Mental, arranged for a night of cultural exchange. Members of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, a national black fraternity, came over for dinner and entertained the ladies for the evening. We shared information about our own chapter's history and founding principles. After dinner, the men of Phi Beta Sigma performed a "step show", which is part of their tradition they hold in their chapter. The night was fun and informative as both chapters were able to get a glimpse of each other's chapter heritage.

SUPER BOWL SUNDAY

FEBRUARY 1

This year Pi Phis kicked off the semester with some Super Bowl excitement by lounging in the living room at the Phi Gamma Delta House. The gentlemen of Phi Gamma Delta were kind enough to pull out couches and their big screen television for us to watch the game. We enjoyed each others' company as well as pizzas and sodas for refreshments. This year's game featured the New England Patriots versus the Carolina Panthers. Andrea Lyons, Chapter President and Massachusetts native, was extremely excited for the Super Bowl XXXVIII game.

TRADE DINNERS

MARCH 24 & APRIL 14

What's a trade dinner? A trade dinner occurs between two houses, in which half the members of one sorority switch places with the other sorority during dinner. This is a great way for girls from our house to meet fellow greek women. This year with the arrangements made by Jackie Pike, our Activities chair, we were able to host two trade dinners. One with Kappa Alpha Theta on March 24, and one on April 14 with our national sister sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma on April 14.

BEAUX AND ARROWS

FEBRUARY 19

Pi Phi Sweetheart, Eric McCrory, and Katie Hammers.

A night of glamour and fun. The ladies of Pi Beta Phi left behind their sweatshirts and jeans as they prepared for an evening of dining and dancing at this semester's "Beaux and Arrows" dance. Pi Phis appeared in their stunning dresses along with their dates at the West Lafayette Shrine Club. Eric McCrory of Sigma Chi Fraternity was announced as "Pi Phi Sweetheart." The evening was enjoyed by everyone attending.

Members of the junior pledge class take time to pose for a group shot.

Just three short years ago, these members of the senior pledge class can probably recall their first "Beaux and Arrows" dance.

"Beaux and Arrows was so much fun! I had a great time dancing with my friends. Formal wear was a nice change from our usual t-shirts and sweatpants."

CLOUD NINE

MARCH 29

A great tan plus a fabulous dress, and of course a wonderful date. A couple weeks after Spring Break, Pi Phis were able to show off all these assets at the annual semi-formal held at The Elks Lodge in Lafayette, Indiana. The ladies and their dates had a wonderful time as they danced the night away.

"The semi-formal was so exciting. Getting a date, finding a dress, and getting ready with friends all made this first dance great."

S P O N T A N E O U S

spontaneous (spon-tay-nee-ess) adj. arising from natural impulse or inclination, rather than from planning or in response to suggestions from others

Now, the word 'spontaneous' may appear in Webster's Dictionary in this manner, but in Greek life here at Purdue University, the word has a different meaning. Spontaneous is an event that occurs...well...spontaneously. Girls are unaware of a themed-social until the morning of the event. Members are given a day to find a date and a costume to the party. Kristy Hartman, our Social Chair, planned two spontaneous events this year--one themed "School Girls" and the other themed "Breakfast Club." The Breakfast club theme initiated memories of the fall football season when fans would dress up in halloween costumes.

Plaid skirts, white blouses, and ties. These girls are ready for the "school night" rather than the "school day."

A sumo wrestler (Deanna Ho), a cheerleader (Kim Dusich), and a Fairy (Becky Laird) showed up at the 2nd Spontaneous themed "Breakfast Club."

GRAND PRIX

APRIL 19-24

This year Pi Phis enjoyed the company of the gentlemen from Phi Gamma Delta as Grand Prix Buddies. Scott Prifogle, of Phi Gamma Delta, drove the FIJI racecar in the 2004 Grand Prix Race. The ladies of Pi Beta Phi had an amazing time with the FIJI men.

These Pi Phis are enjoying the nice weather outside on the FIJI lawn
